

Mrs. Coles Is Hostess At Luncheon Honoring Mrs. Simms, Of Bryan, Tex.

THE decorations for the luncheon given Saturday at the Toltice clubhouse by Mrs. J. P. Coles, honoring Mrs. W. M. Simms, of Bryan, Texas, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Davis, were exquisitely quaint. Snapdragons, pink roses, violets and emulins filled the ivory hall in the center of the table and the curtains and other dainty appointments for the luncheon reflected the shades of the blossoms of decoration. Mrs. Simms has many friends in the city and always receives numerous social honors while here. Twenty-two guests were included in the list who enjoyed Mrs. Coles's courtesy for her Saturday.

On last Wednesday evening a turkey dinner was given at the First Presbyterian church for the congregation, with Mrs. S. H. Sutherland and Mrs. A. P. Averill in charge. Eighty-five guests were present to enjoy the dinner and the program followed, when W. M. Wiggins spoke on the work of the Sunday school.

H. S. Merriell Will Wed Miss McKee; A. B. Swain Engaged to Wed Miss Burk

THIS weekend brings two interesting engagements. Those of Howard Merriell and Miss Lucille McKee, and of Alvin Ben Swain and Miss Dan Ella Burk. Miss McKee is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McKee, of this city, and Mr. Merriell lived prior to coming to this city in Chicago. The wedding will occur at the McKee home at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, February 12. Miss Lucille Clark and Spencer Darityshire will be the attendants for the Merriell-McKee wedding. Mr. Swain and Miss Burk's wedding will occur on Saturday afternoon, February 21, at 1:30 o'clock at Trinity Methodist church, with a ceremony of beautiful arrangement. Miss Burk is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Houston Burk. Mr. Swain formerly lived in Mississippi.

Mrs. Shaw, Of San Antonio, Honor Guest At Mrs. R. Brown's Card Party

MRS. M. M. SHAW, of San Antonio, an interesting visitor in the city, was honor guest at a card party of pretty details given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. Brown at the Brown apartments in the Washington. The reception rooms of the Brown suite were charming with a color motif of yellow and white featured with French marigolds and touches of white tulle about the vases and bowls of flowers. Other appointments for the party were in the dainty little featured in the hostess and the confections. Those who assisted Mrs. Brown and her honor guest in receiving were Mrs. Caroline H. Dink, Mrs. C. N. Dink, Mrs. Grace Fick and Miss May Bartleson.

Mrs. Shaw was presented with a dainty guest prize and the other prizes were won by Mrs. S. W. Pant, Mrs. A. J. Fellen, Mrs. Ben Clements. Those who enjoyed the courtesy to Mrs. Shaw included: Mesdames Theodore Foster, Christine Hoxie Fraser, Robert F. Paden, Sam Pant, A. J. Pullan, R. F. Clutter, Everett Long, T. M. Unique Leap Year Hop At Elks' Club; Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Coles Give Dance

THE leap year dance at the Elks' clubhouse on Friday evening was one of the most unique and delightful affairs of the social season. Nash's orchestra furnished music for the dancing hours and the most delicious refreshments were served, including cake made by the maid and matrons who made of the evening such a pleasant affair. Many interesting features were included in the evening's entertainment, one of the most interesting and amusing being a voting contest in which the men were given an opportunity of seeing themselves as others see them. As a result of the vote, A. Stokard was voted the handsomest man, George Booth received most votes for the most popular man, and Harry Hagdon was declared the most entertaining man and O. C. Youngblood won first place for the best dancing. The maid and matrons asked for the dances, cut in on each other for partners and served the men in the most attentive manner at the supper hour. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance included: Mrs. George Booth, Mrs. C. M. Wilcox, Mrs. Hal Christie, Mrs. R. S. Purcell, Mrs. Harry Hagdon, J. E. Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Bromberg, Mrs. A. Stokard, Mrs. Max Atkin, Mrs. R. P. Champion, Mrs. Max Miller, Misses Elvira, Natalia and Emma Galantina, Miss Katherine Richey and Miss Lucile Douglas.

One of the happiest of the season's social affairs was the dance given at the Toltice clubhouse on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Coles for a group of their friends of the married couple. The arrangements for the party, while quite informal, were the most charming possible. The guests were received in the reception room, opposite the ballroom, which was decorated for the occasion with palms, plants and flowers. The dance program was presented to the guests by Katherine Coles, Frances Davis and Billy Coles and were very pretty, bearing the Coles monogram. An orchestra composed of Philippine embroidery over pink satin covered the table and a French basket filled with a myriad of spring flowers centered it. The pink of roses and the lavender of violets were predominant in the decorations and intermingled with amaranth which wound about the handle of the basket and hung in graceful festoons to the table. The confections were in the dainty flower shades.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Coles during the evening were Mrs. Coles's father, Maj. W. J. Fowd, and her cousin, Miss Carrie Metcalf, of Missouri, an attractive guest at the Fowd home. The scene was a beautiful one with the beautifully frocked matrons, fragrant flowers, lilting music of the orchestra and the entire ensemble, enhanced by the softly shaded lights of the ballroom.

Under the new regime at the Khaki club, which has been taken over by the army, the regular week end dance will be given there this evening. Miss Virginia Cogswell, hostess, and assistant hostesses, Miss Olive Mason and Mrs. E. Crofton, have arrived to take over the work formerly under the direction of the girls' division of the War Camp Community service, and the organization of the girls' work will be continued along the same lines. Miss Miriam Toles, who had charge of the girls' work of the W. C. C. S., will remain in the city until after the dance this evening and will assist the incoming hostesses with receiving. The girls will not be permitted to attend the dance without their admission cards. The various women's organizations will, as formerly, be charged

Get more eggs!

Few poultry raisers are getting all the eggs they should from their hens. I know this from my years of experience as a breeder of prize-winning poultry, and also from my 27 years' veterinary practice.

Hens need a tonic. Heavy-layers must have perfect digestions, so they can turn more of the feed into eggs.

Dr. LeGear's Poultry Prescription

Will increase the profit from your hens, because it is a wonderful poultry tonic and conditioner. It gives hens egg-producing energy, keeps them strong and vigorous, and makes healthy to your whole flock. Try it today.

Especially prepared from my 27 years of veterinary and poultry experience. Ask your dealer for a package. Manufactured only by
